Examples of projects funded by gifts to the Library Endowment include books and other materials for children and adults:

- Multiple grants to Metropolitan Library System for books, programs, and materials in the areas of services for children and seniors, history and genealogy, arts and humanities, business and technology, and other areas as requested by the MLS Executive Director.
- Special grant to Midwest City Library for its 50th Anniversary in 2005.
- Special grant to "Come Read With Me," a literacy effort sponsored by the Library System and Success by Six.
- Grants to the Ronald J. Norick Downtown Library for public art, including:
  - ◆ Bronze sculpture of children reading books to adorn the portal entryway into The Children's Place, given in honor of the former MLS Executive Director Lee B. Brawner.
  - ◆ Framed prints of early-day Oklahoma City to grace all four floors of the Downtown Library, thanks to the joint generosity of the Library Endowment Trust and the Friends of the Library.
- Grants to libraries in Oklahoma County for programs for families of all ages, including special music or library-related entertainment planned around library book themes.
