

METROPOLITAN LIBRARY SYSTEM

This Week's Craft:

Crowns

Check out these resources from Metropolitan Library System to keep the art going!

READ

- Radiant Child by Javaka Steptoe Winner of the Randolph Caldecott Medal and the Coretta Scott King Illustrator Award. Jean-Michel Basquiat and his unique, collage-style paintings rocketed to fame in the 1980s as a cultural phenomenon unlike anything the art world had ever seen. But before that, he was a little boy who saw art everywhere: in poetry books and museums, in games and in the words that we speak, and in the pulsing energy of New York City.
- Once Upon a Fairy Tale Craft by Annalees Lim, Supriya Sahai. Part of the Happily Ever Crafter series. Transform your home into a fairy tale kingdom with these terrific craft ideas. Readers can make a mermaid tail, frog prince treats, jeweled goblets, and more fairy tale-inspired creations with the help of simple step-by-step instructions and charming illustrations. Over 20 fun activities inside!
- Fairy Gardening 101 by Fiona McDonald Learn which types of plants and containers are most successful for a fairy garden, as well as how to develop a focal point for your enchanted mini Eden. Fairy Gardening 101 also provides important information on caring for your garden, on designing gardens for both indoors and outside, on using artificial plants to make your garden last a lifetime, and much more!

WATCH

Cinderella 1965. Not rated. The Rodgers and Hammerstein musical, CINDERELLA stars Lesley Ann Warren in this television production of the classic fairy tale.

KEEP LEARNING

Imagine Your Story! Summer Reading is different, but still here! Every summer for more than eighty years, the Metropolitan Library System has offered a Summer Reading program to keep kids and their families reading all summer long. Summer Reading is a community tradition that promotes reading for fun and lifelong enrichment. Sign up today!
