

National Voter Registration Day

Get civically engaged with your local library!

Did you know that September 22 is National Voter Registration Day? While we always have Oklahoma Voter Registration Applications available, if you drop off your completed application at any Metro Library location from September 8-22, we will mail it in for you! Metro libraries also offer free ID copying services for absentee voting!

Not able to make it back to the library with your completed app and don't have postage? No problem! Check out OKVOTE.org to enter your Oklahoma Voter Registration Application information and they will mail you a printed application along with a pre-addressed, postage paid envelope within 24 hours of receiving your application.
