Paint the phases of the moon on a vinyl record.

I used a quarter to trace my circles. I channeled the following Bob Ross quote when painting the clouds and stars example:

"We don't make mistakes. We just have happy accidents."

Have fun and try not to worry about your artwork being perfect.

